To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Ralph Stein and the professionals at Virtual Service for over a year now. I have been consistently impressed by Ralph's professionalism and his "get it done" attitude.

Our company has had MANY requests of Ralph and his service professionals. Some within the scope of their contract and many outside of it, they continuously have gone way above the call of duty to ensure that we received the most professional and secure service for our residential locations, even at midnight!

It has been a pleasure working with Ralph and his team. I have never met such dedicated and professional people. I look forward to working with him on all our projects.

I highly, and without reservation recommend Ralph Stein and Virtual Service for any building project where the owner/developer wants to have professional individuals cater to their needs at extremely affordable prices.

Please feel free to contact me if you require any further information.

Sincerely
